Dedication

To Our Parents

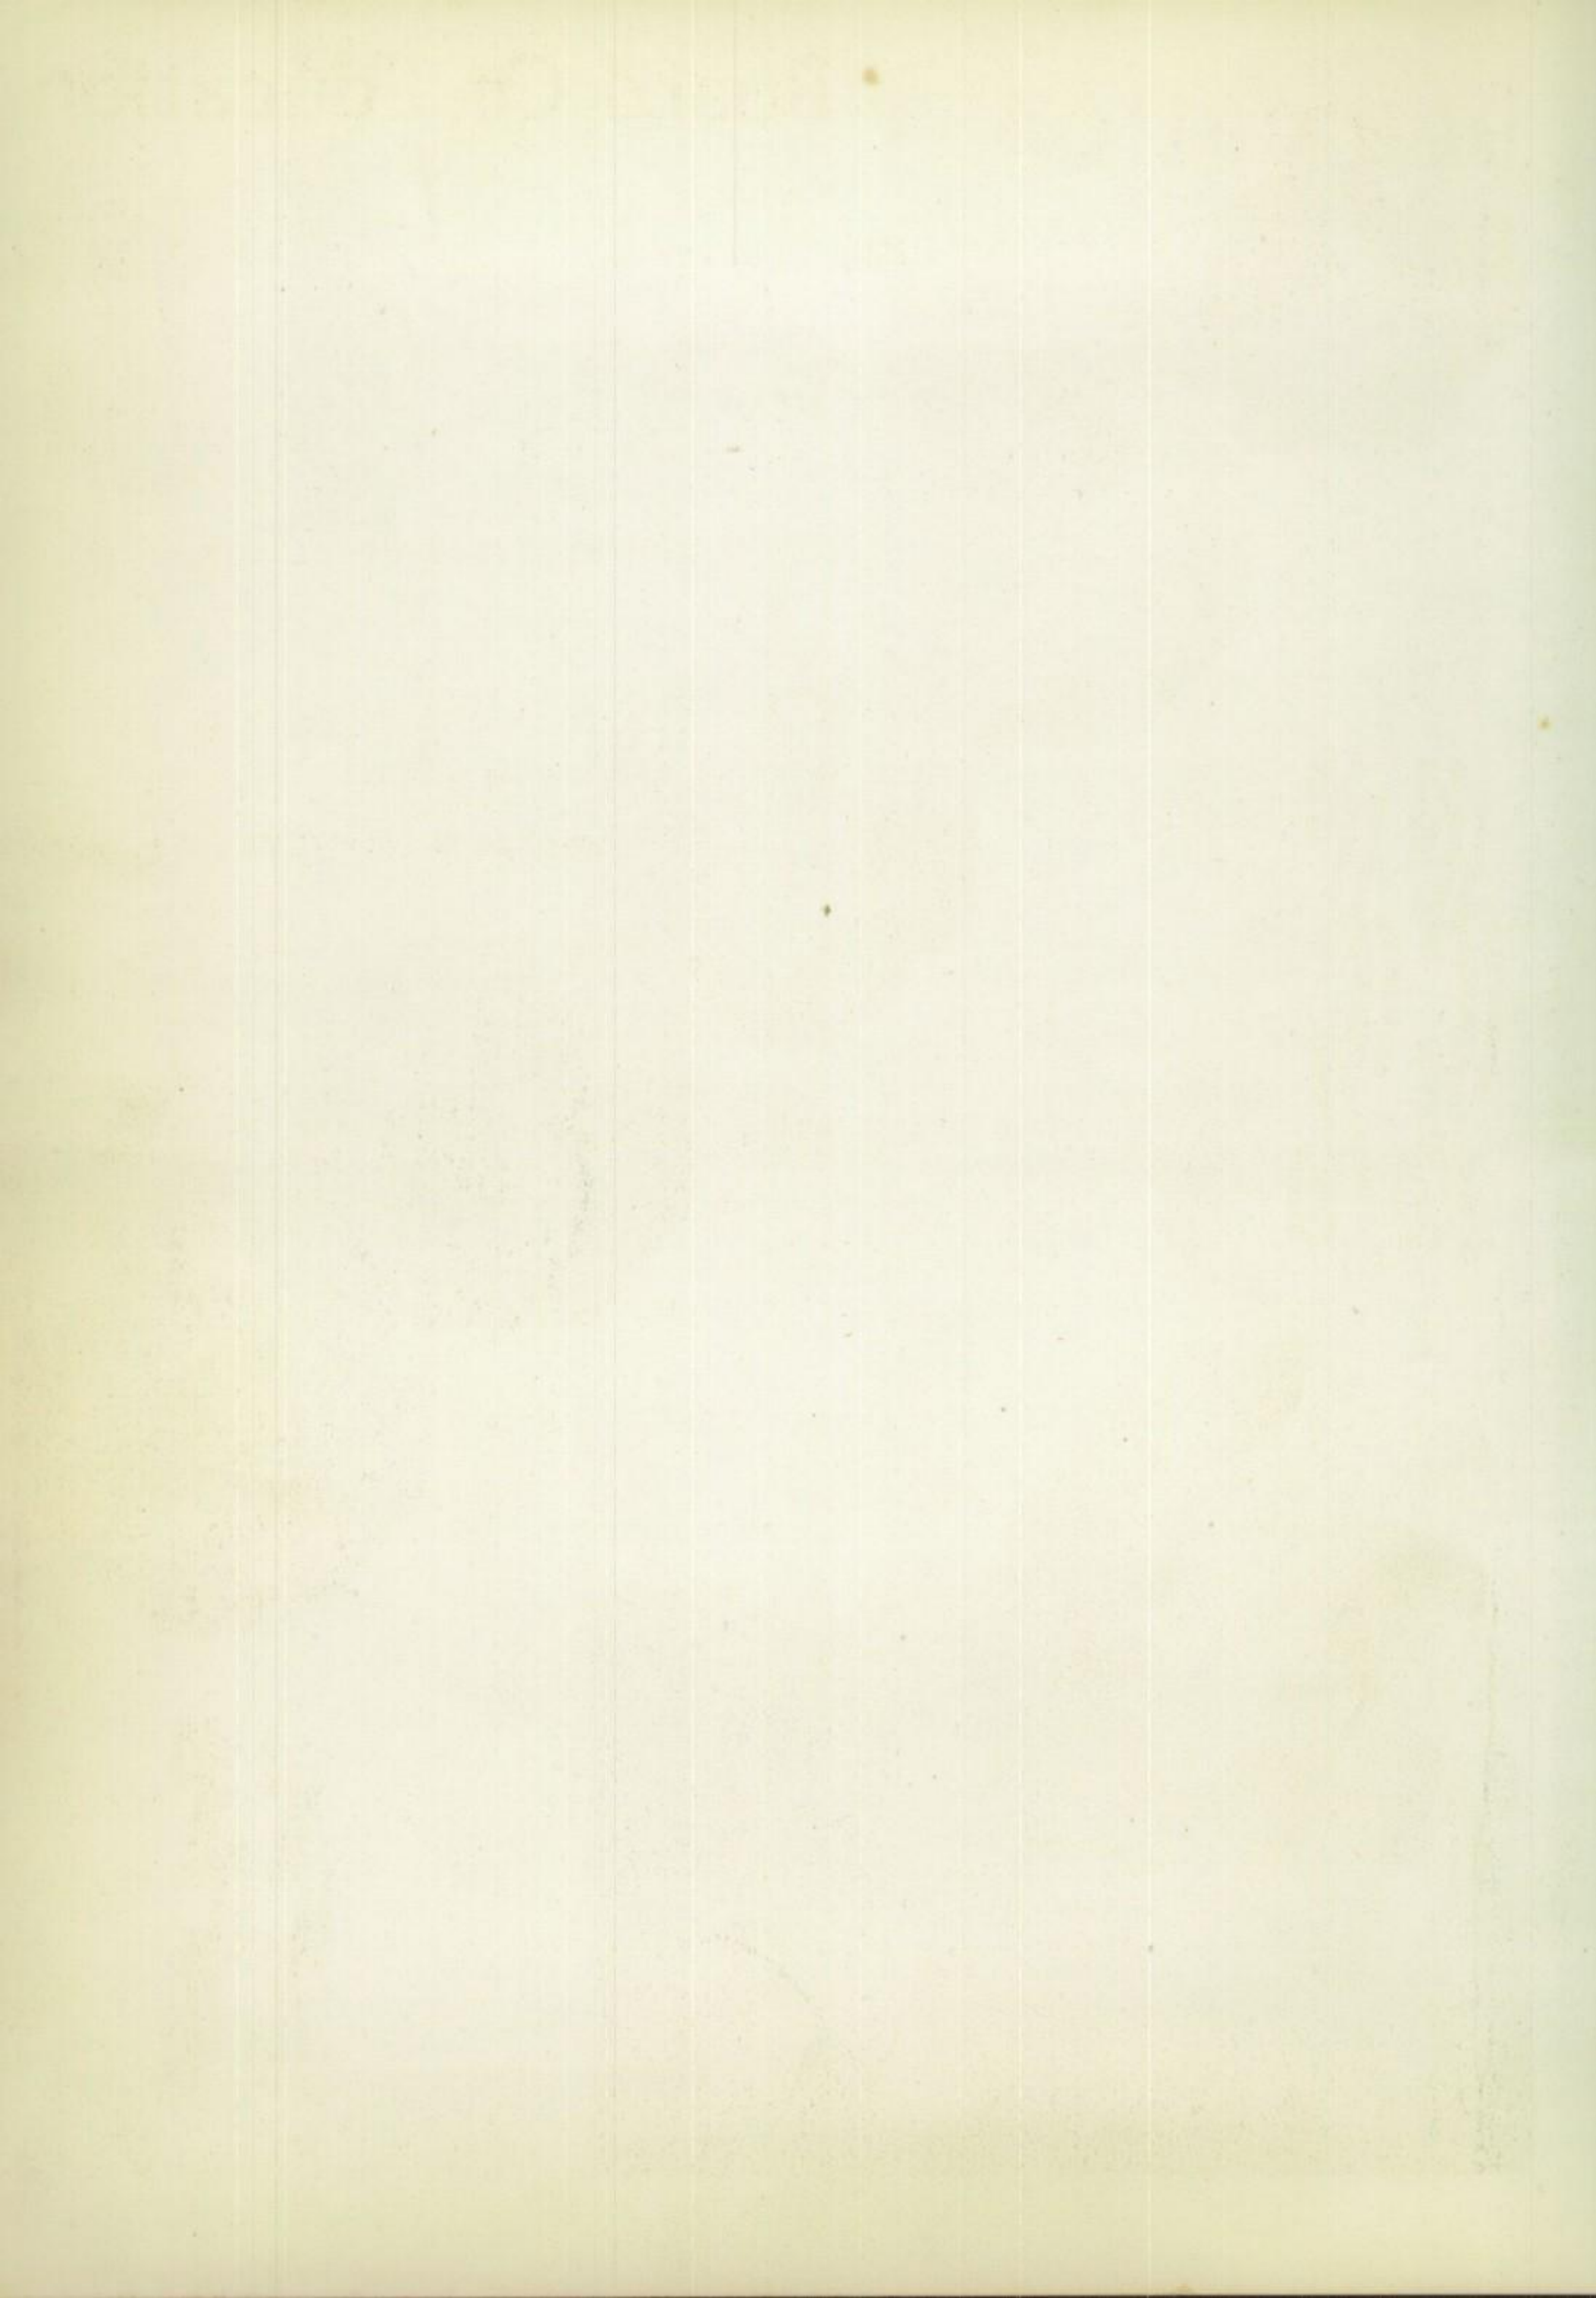

How could we ever have made a successful journey through these twelve delightful years of school had it not been for the never-ending patience, understanding, and guidance of you, our parents.

Mom, you combed our hair and scrubbed our faces pink every morning; Dad, you patiently listened to us read the monotonous story of "Jack and Janet" over and over every night when we were in grade school. At times, you may have gotten discouraged, but we are thankful that you had such strong faith and never gave up. We now realize some of the sacrifices that both of you made in order that we could have the opportunity to receive a public school education.

When we entered junior high, we felt that we were on the brink of manhood and womanhood. Mother, you and Dad stood by and listened to all of our troubles, and gave us hours of timely advice on how we should act and some of the problems we would likely encounter as we traveled through life.

Finally we find ourselves where we had longed to be--seniors in high school. Mom, you and Dad kept reminding us how important it was to be prompt and to study. You often told us that we would get out of life exactly what we put into it.

Now the time has almost arrived for us to receive our coveted diplomas. Soon, we shall go into the world and take our places in society. Mom and Dad, without your love and unselfishness, without your spirit of wisdom and understanding, we could never have achieved this goal. So it is with pride and devotion that we, the senior class of 1957, do humbly and gratefully dedicate this, The 1957 Eagle, to the most wonderful people in the world--Our Parents.
